Dear Professor Marks:

Enclosed is a program of the Sacco Vanzetti meeting, and a type-written copy of my speech. I made a few for the reporters, but the meeting got only scant reports. We had a pretty good audience. The last speaker on the program did not get there; he was detained by an important law case.

Yours always affectionately, Alice Stone Blackwell.

Tomorrow I go back to Chilmark. There is a fine young woman visiting me there who works in the book department of Jordan & Marsh's, & sometimes gives readings. Miss Margorie Sumpter. The other day she got hold of your volume of Welsh plays, which was among my books. She is most enthusiastic over it, and plans to use some of the plays in her readings.

I do hope you are getting a good rest. Don't bother to answer this.
